State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Annual Report on Form 10-K of General Communication, Inc. (the "Company") for the year ended December 31, 2013, could not be filed within the prescribed period without unreasonable effort or expense because during the course of the preparation of the financial statements for the Company and its subsidiaries, the Company determined that additional procedures were necessary to verify certain intercompany accounts relating to handset subsidies. These procedures require us to obtain further information and to perform additional testing and analysis. The Company anticipates that it will file its Annual Report within the fifteen calendar-day extension period.
